Going

YoungLives assembles teams of caring adults to love teen moms and their children. As the heartbeat of YoungLives, mentors support teen moms with life-on-life guidance. Childcare volunteers watch over babies so teen moms can enjoy everything Young Life has to offer. Together, we care for a young woman when she most needs to know she's not alone.

Inviting

We invite teen moms to experience the fun, laughter and freedom that once seemed lost.

CLUB

This slumber party without a sleepover is a weekly gathering where everyone's welcome — babies too. While their children are lovingly tended by childcare volunteers, teen moms let go for an hour of music and fun, practical help, life skills training and a safe place to hear about God's unfailing love.

CAMP

Camp is designed for teen moms and their babies. Moms enjoy the companionship of their mentors, the gift of resort-quality facilities, and fun and adventure. Throughout the week, their children are cared for by volunteers committed to giving these young moms the chance to be kids again.

CAMPAIGNERS

Campaigners is a time for teen moms and their mentors to go deeper and apply God's Word to their lives. Alongside women who know and love them, teen moms learn they are never alone.

Investing

We know that teen moms are at risk of dropping out of school, of having more children and parenting alone. That's why we walk beside them, modeling the love that says, "You're going to be OK. In fact, you and your child can experience real life."

Investing in their future happens in many ways: as mentors coming alongside young moms; as childcare volunteers; as prayer partners interceding for their deepest needs; and as donors contributing baby gear, camp scholarships and ongoing ministry support.

With your help, we can support girls whose responsibilities are great, and whose potential for impacting the next generation is even greater. At YoungLives, teen moms realize they have a future and a hope.

Isolated and Overlooked

A teenage girl often feels alone. If that girl is also a mother, she feels a deeper sense of loneliness. Isolated and overlooked, she's on the outside looking in at a future that's no longer hers.

For these young women, YoungLives offers

*unconditional acceptance, practical support
and life-giving hope.*
