

in it with Kids

Under Pressure

Whether they live in Nairobi, New York, or Nebraska, young people today face constant pressure to perform and, sometimes, to survive. They're asking crucial questions.

*Can I make it?
Is this all there is?*

Kids need friends in a confusing and chaotic world. They need someone in it with them.

Going

Young Life leaders cultivate relationships with middle school kids, high school kids and college students. We walk with them and earn the right to be heard in an exhausting and exciting world.

We've been showing up for all kids since 1941. Today, we have specific ministries for teen moms, kids with disabilities and military kids.

And we keep showing up; we are in over 100 countries, where we know more than two million kids by name.

Inviting

Kids want to belong. We accept them as they are and invite them to experience life as it was meant to be lived at:

CLUB: Everyone is welcome at what is often called "a party with a purpose." It's a time of fun and talking about what matters in life.

CAMP: The "best week of your life" is a time of extravagant adventure, when kids get to be real, have a seat at the table and learn that God loves them more than they imagined.

CAMPAIGNERS: Kids and leaders open the Bible together and discuss what it means to follow Jesus Christ.

Investing

"I'm thankful for every day I felt like a nothing and God used Young Life to remind me who I am." — Drew

Kids need adults willing to invest in them.

This starts with people like you — a group of adults in it with kids emotionally, spiritually and financially.

Would you consider how you could make such an investment — and offer kids belonging, hope and changed lives?

Young Life's Mission

1. Kids around the world are searching for belonging, hope and life.
2. We're in it with kids and accept them as they are — no strings attached.
3. Kids are invited to experience life as God designed it to be lived.

Join us in our mission of introducing adolescents to Jesus Christ and helping them grow in their faith.
